FIRST LEG TO VIENNA: The first leg of the Princeton High School Choir's trip to Europe — its first since 1964 — is a trip by bus Thursday afternoon from the school to Kennedy Airport. Checking passports at the door of one bus is Carmen Prezioso, a department head at PHS and a trip chaperone. Here he gets a little kiss from a boarding choir member. Eighty one singers made the trip after parents, students themselves, business and civic organizations in the community combined to raise the $60,000 cost. All travel arrangements were handled by Revere Travel of Palmer Square.

Borough and Township Name New Magistrate

Philip S. Carchman has been appointed magistrate of Borough and Township, succeeding Theodore T. Tams Jr. who has become a judge of Superior Court. Mr. Carchman's appointment will take effect July 16, or earlier if he can so arrange his affairs.

The new magistrate is a member of the firm of Carchman, Sachor and Carchman, One Palmer Square. He lives at 301 Western Way. The other Mr. Carchman in the firm is the magistrate's father.

In announcing the appointment Monday night, on behalf of both Borough and Township governments, Township Mayor Jay Bleiman said the screening committee of Borough and Township officials named to interview candidates, felt that Mr. Carchman had a "deep sensitivity" for the unique problems of the Princeton community, in addition to an impressive background of legal training and experience.

"Princeton is unique," Magistrate Carchman said later. "It is unique because people here have a deep awareness of what's going on in government, especially in the courts. Unfortunately, you don't often find that awareness in a community. It means, for example, that when younger people appear before the court, there can be great concern."

"A court can be innovative, as Judge Tams' was," he continued, "and I'd like to continue that philosophy. I have many ideas flowing through my mind that aren't fully developed yet — they'll begin to form in a couple of months, when I get a feel for the problems you don't see from the side of the bench I've been on before!"

Mr. Carchman said he endorses the volunteer probation aide program conceived by Judge Tams, and will discuss it with the former magistrate in the next few weeks.

He commented that the decision to form a joint Borough-Township selection committee for a joint magistrate, was a step toward a single municipal court to serve both Princetons. "The two courts are so closely related in philosophy," he observed.

A young magistrate, Mr. Carchman was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1963, with a degree from the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce. He received his law degree from Penn in 1966 and was admitted to practice that same year before the Supreme Court of New Jersey and the U.S. District Court.

The following year, he was admitted to practice before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and in 1970, to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

From September, 1967 to June, 1970, he was a deputy attorney general for New Jersey, assigned to counsel the Civil Service Commission and to be assistant counsel to the State's Department of Transportation. He was assigned to the attorney general's trial section, serving as prosecutor for various municipal courts throughout the state and for various agencies.

His current practice is general and includes municipal court defense work. He has been assigned to represent indigent defendants before the Borough's municipal court. No member of his present law firm appears before any Princeton municipal body: the first legal requirement for any magistrate.

The magistrate's salary is $9,900 a year: $7,500 from the Borough and $2,400 from the Township. In the Borough, the magistrate holds traffic court every Monday, and criminal court the first and third Wednesdays. In the Township, court meets twice a month.

MORE APARTMENTS?

On Quarry Site. Proposals by Charles LaPlaca to build condominium apartments on the Old Quarry site off Spruce Street will go before the Princeton Regional Planning Board at its July meeting, next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall.

Mr. LaPlaca's land is next to the Lloyd Terrace housing for the elderly on Harrison Street. The quarry at its southern end has been filled in and could presumably be built on at least incorporated into an apartment site. The exact number of units planned by Mr. LaPlaca is flexible. Queenston Common, a condominium now under construction, is across Harrison.

The Borough has had plans for extending Spruce Street through to Spruce Circle. If these plans were followed, access to Lloyd Terrace from Harrison would be closed off. Both Lloyd Terrace and Mr. LaPlaca's new project would be reached only from Spruce. The subdivision plan does not show this arrangement, however.

In a second aplication, Dr Arnold Hirsch will show plans to change the lower floor of his present building at 207 11 Harrison from residence to office. Only the parking problem involved will be before the planners.

Princeton Bank and Trust's site plans for adding the building formerly occupied by the Moore lawn-mower service to the bank's headquarters on State Road, will be reviewed.

In second appearances before the planning board will be Robert Poitras' plans for converting the bowling lanes on Nassau Street to restaurant use, and H.M.S.' plans for eight units of terrace housing on Stuart and Great Roads.

NO MORE POST OFFICE

In Township. Princeton no longer has a second, sub-station post office, at least for the present.

The one in the Princeton Shopping Center, in the Center Stationers store, has been closed. The proposed new one, in the small building at 354 Ewing, hasn't yet opened although the change-over date of July 1 has come and gone.

Mrs. Jessie Gaylord, owner of the 354 Ewing building and successful low bidder against Center Stationers for a sub-station, hasn't yet applied to the Township Zoning Board for a decision on whether she needs a variance. The building is in a residential zone. The cleaning establishment in the building existed before the zone became residential.

Mrs. Gaylord has until next Monday, July 3, to make the deadline for the July 19 zoning meeting. If she is denied a needed variance, there will be no sub-station. Township Committee member Barbara Smoyer urged Monday night that the community continue to search for a sub-station location in the Princeton Shopping Center.

LOST IN MAINE WOODS

Two Princeton Girls Safe. Two Princeton girls managed to walk to safety last week after being lost in dense Maine woods for nearly 48 hours.

Rachel Doig, 15, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Jameson Doig, 12 College Road, and Katy Crupi, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crupi, 11 College Road, nevertheless plan to continue their vacation. A friend of Rachel for three years, Katy is visiting with the Doig family at their summer cottage on the short of Rangeley Lake.

The two girls apparently became lost early last week when they tried to find some friends who had gone fishing at Cascade Falls within walking distance of Rangeley State Park. A wrong turn caused them to walk 15 miles, including a trek over 4,116-foot high Saddleback Mountain.

They were found, frightened and crying, by a highway construction worker driving a truck to a construction site near Madrid, Me. He took them to a Madrid general store owner who called the state police.

Except for being badly bitten by mosquitoes and hungry, the girls were in good health. All they had to eat during the two days they were lost was some candy.

The area in which they had wandered was described as heavily wooded and largely inaccessible. Both were wearing short sleeve blouses and had to contend with temperatures at night that fell to the 50s. The girls reported later that they had tried to sleep but were unable to because of the cold.

Mrs. Crupi said that she did not learn that her daughter was missing until Mrs. Doig called her last Wednesday afternoon from Rangely. She added that she had been told that if the two had not been found by Thursday morning, a nation-wide search would have been initiated and the National Guard called in.

A 30-man search party had been looking for the girls when they managed to walk out of the woods near Madrid.

HEARING IS ORDERED

On I-95 Link. Hopewell Township opponents of Interstate Route 95 still have a chance, albeit a small one, in their battle to keep the superhighway from cutting through the heart of the township.

The Appellate Division of the Third Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia has ordered the U.S. District Court in Newark to hold a final hearing on a motion by the Hopewell Township Citizens I-95 Committee for a declaratory judgment and permanent injunction.

This reversed a summary judgment won by the defendants in the case, the U.S. Department of Transportation and the State of New Jersey. At the same time the Appellate Court upheld the lower court's denial of a preliminary injunction sought by the citizens committee.

The committee claims the defendants failed to hold a public hearing on the project, required prior to federal approval and participation.

The disputed section is the 3.4 mile link, presently under construction, which would connect I-95 from its present terminus at Scotch Road with I-295 in the vicinity of Federal City Road.

STORE TRAP SUCEEDS

Juvenile Charged with Larceny. A 13-year-old Princeton juvenile, whom police described as "very observant" has been arrested and charged with larceny at Woolworth's on Nassau Street.

Chief Michael Carnevale reported that a key ring to cash registers at the store had been stolen last week. A few days later, $98 was taken from one of the registers.

Chief Carnevale continued that the youth was arrested when he went back for more money, as a result of a trap arranged by the store manager and Borough juvenile officer Douglas Watson who had been conducting the investigation.

"He was very observant," said Chief Carnevale. "He noticed the routine of the sales clerks, took the key ring and then came back and took the money."

HAS WALLET STOLEN

While Playing Tennis. Steven Kraft, 293 Ridgeview Road, had his wallet stolen between 5:15 and 7 last Wednesday evening while he was playing tennis at the Community Park courts. He lost $10.

Mr. Kraft told police that the doors to his VW Squareback station wagon had been locked. Police believe that the thief used the car's tailgate to gain access.

COMMITTEE MEETS

Housing, Traffic, Infiltration. Re-surfacing of State Road (Route 206) will be done late this summer from Ewing to Hillside, state Department of Transportation officials have told the Township. Regretfully, says the state, there isn't enough money to do the full job on 206 that everybody would like.

At Township Committee's Monday night meeting, Administrator Joseph R. Nini said the state will draw up designs to improve another section of 206, from the Borough-Township line at Leigh Avenue, north to Ewing. The state wants further study before making a decision on carving out a third lane, for trucks, from Ewing Street north, Mr. Nini reported.

Committee member Barbara Smoyer urged consideration of a bike lane on 206.

The public housing project on Ewing and Mt. Lucas, usually known as the Yedlin project for its developer, Benedict Yedlin, got an extension of its use variance Monday night.

Under the new zoning ordinance, a use variance expires in six months if a building permit hasn't been obtained. Mr. Yedlin and the Housing Authority, faced with a "major environmental impact" study by Federal housing officials, have not yet obtained a building permit.

The present variance was due to expire July 15. Committee extended it until July, 1974. Griffin says the Housing Authority must get a similar extension from the Zoning Board. Municipal attorney Gordon

Progress in solving Princeton's sewer infiltration was detailed by Joseph Minkin, the new assistant sanitary engineer retained by the Sewer Operating Committee to make the infiltration study.

'Infiltration' means water getting into the sanitary sewer system where it doesn't belong, and over-loading the sewer treatment plant. It's one of the reasons why the state imposed its moratorium on sewer connections in Princeton.

Mr. Minkin, who explained that he'd been on the job two months, told Committee that solving the problem was a two-year project.

At present, he said, one million gallons a day come legally into the sewer treatment plant on River Road. Another two million infiltrate. Since the plant has a two and one-half million gallon capacity, it is overloaded all the time, even under average conditions. Low efficiency is the result.

What causes infiltration? Manholes in the streets get flooded and let water in . . . flows into the holes of manholes, through cracks in the lines and breaks in the sewer system's 100 miles of pipes... sump pumps in the basements of homes energeitcally pump illegal water into the sewer system . . . householders who have illegally connected downspouts into the sewer system contribute to infiltration.....25 percent of all rainfall leaks into the system.

"I know where 85 percent of the leaks are right now," Mr. Minkin said. He reported that only 50 homes out of 1,500 inspected, were in violation and that 20 of these had been corrected.

Of the town's 2,150 manholes, Mr. Minkin has looked at 300; He plans to seal off about 200 manholes, and raise about 50 more so they can't be flooded. In the Harry's Brook area, and in the flood plain, manholes will be raised from one to three feet off the ground, he said.

"The sanitary sewers MUST carry only waste, not storm water. That belongs in storm drains," he emphasized.

"This is the easy part," he told Committee. It will occupy the first year.

The second year will be taken up with the harder part," he said. This means replacing bad sections of sewer pipe and doing sewer repair.

"The piping system," he said reassuringly, "is not in bad shape."

In a similar vein, Committee passed assessments for the sewer extension on Rosedale Lane. The seven assessments are largely for $3,346.63.

Stuart Minton, of the assessors' board, urged Committee to publicize the Board of Health regulation that home-owners must connect into a sanitary sewer within five years of its installation, even if their septic systems are functioning properly. Many house-holders do not realize this, he observed.

Outraged residents of Mt. Lucas Road, near the Theological Seminary's housing development protested new high curbing and proposed concrete sidewalks for the project. (See "Mailbox")

Bike riders have no way to escape fast-moving automobile traffic because the new curbs are so high, one resident said. Curbs have also increased flooding, it was protested.

Township engineer Joseph Hodak replied that the higher curb gives engineers a chance to smooth out a very rough roadway. Water can flow through a cut in the curb into the woods, he said. Mayor Jay Bleiman said Committee would discuss the problem.

Thomas Robinson, 22 Valley Road, was named to the Joint Civil Rights Commission. He is a lawyer with Educational Testing Service. Robert Anderson, Lawrence Court, was appointed alternate to the Township Zoning Board. A graduate student at the Woodrow Wilson School, he plans to make his home in Princeton. Mayor Bleiman said.

Sewer Plan Passes Over Township's "No" Vote

With Princeton Township casting the lone "no" vote, the Stony Brook Regional Sewer Authority decided 5-1 last Thursday, to accept a modified version of the so-called Alternate 1-A sewer plan, and send it to the state for approval.

The new regional sewer is being designed to serve both Princetons, Hopewell Township, Hopewell Borough, West Windsor and Pennington. The cost of the 1-A route is estimated at $49.4 million.

Alternate 1-A calls for a single treatment plant located on the Millstone River at the site of the present plant on River Road in Princeton Township. The trunk line, in a modified route, would run through the woods of the Institute for Advanced Study along an existing sewer line, rather than along the original line blocked out by Metcalf and Eddy, engineering consultants to the Authority.

Also, engineers have been instructed by the Authority to by-pass if possible, the Revolutionary War route into Princeton that goes through the woodlands near the Friends Meeting House, and to watch out for possible ecological damage to the University's Stony Ford biology station on Cleveland Road in Hopewell Township.

The Authority decided there wasn't enough detail in Metcalf and Eddy's 15-20 page answer to ecological and demographic questions raised at the public hearing June 14 on the Environmental Assessment of the sewer system. The engineering firm has been asked to provide more information, and this will be attached to documents sent to the state's Department of Environmental Protection.

Township's View. "Personally, I prefer route 1-B, and so does Township Committee," said Dean Chace, Township representative on the Authority, commenting on his "no" vote.

"But the Authority met for four hours before last Thursday's meeting," he continued, "and it was clear right away that everyone but the Township wanted 1-A. Rather than cause the ill-feeling that might have resulted if I'd introduced 1-B and had it voted down, I decided to let the majority have 1-A. The state and Federal authorities will make the final decision on whether this modified 1-A is the route to take."

Under Alternate 1-B sewer lines would be laid in tunnels under the area. "It is the one proposed route that would not damage woodlands, and the Township would have preferred that," Mr. Chace said.

He explained that, as an Authority member, he's taken the position that the cost difference, by Metcalf and Eddy's own figures, is only about $20,000 a year, between 1-B and 1-A in its original form.

Mr. Chace recalled that about three years ago, after engineers told the Authority there were some choices on routes, Mr. Chace had moved acceptance of the tunnel route. He was supported by two members of the Authority — its chairman, Ezra Bixby of Pennington, and John Strange, who was Princeton Borough representative at the time. The 3-3 tie, however, automatically defeated the proposal.

Engineers at Metcalf and Eddy think Alternate 1-A is the best. Environmental Analysts, a firm retained by Metcalf and Eddy to contribute to the environmental assessment, have declared it to be the most destructvie of the alternate routes. Mr. Chace says the firm thinks 1-A may not even meet state guidelines.

Nobody knows when the state will act on the Authority's June 28 decision. But Mr. Chace is optimistic: he 'thinks a Stony Brook regional sewer is maybe in the top five in New Jersey, in terms of who goes first.

RENT CONTROL?

Maybe. A rent control ordinance is under consideration in the Borough but whether one will be introduced next Tuesday when Council meets, nobody knows.

The Borough's housing advisory group has outlined several possible types of ordinances to Council, having searched out laws from various New Jersey municipalities.

Council's usual agenda meeting will be held next Monday, the day before the regular public meeting. Councilmen say that a decision on introducing an ordinance could be reached at that meeting.

In West Windsor-Plainsboro. With last year's teaching contract expired and next year's not yet in sight, the West Windsor-Plainsboro Education Association has charged the Board of Education with possessing an "unprofessional attitude and total lack of interest in reaching any sort of fair agreement."

The Board of Education argues that the teachers have been turning their backs on the negotiating process by unilaterally declaring impasses and by walking out of one meeting and not showing up for another scheduled last week with a state mediator.

All that one can be sure of in the West Windsor-Plainsboro teachers dispute is that the negotiations have reached a stalemate and that charges, counter-charges, and rebuttals will continue to fly.

The next step expected is the appointment of a fact finder by the Public Employment Relations Commission, who would make written recommendation to the parties.

Last week, virtually on the eve of the June 30 expiration of the teachers' contract, the two negotiating teams were scheduled to meet with a PERC appointed mediator Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Uncertain Effects. The two groups did meet for two hours Wednesday night. But, according to Robert Duncan, head of the Board of Education negotiating team, the teachers announced at the end of that time that they had had enough, and that they would not attend Thursday's meeting at all.

What effect the expired contract would have on the school district's summer school program was unclear. Mr. Duncan said that past contracts have not dealt with summer school.

This year, however, one of the proposals made by the Education Association concerns the minimum hour rate for summer school teachers, which the association wants raised to its 1969 level. The association claims that the board wants to further reduce this rate by 50 cents per hour.

Mr. Duncan and the board will not discuss specific negotiating points. "The proper place for that is at the bargaining table," he says.

Teacher Proposals. The association has proposed that the length of the elementary school day be shortened slightly to conform to most other school districts. The response of the board, the association says, is that the day should be lengthened.

The teachers also have proposed that the length of the school year be shortened. The board's response, according to the teachers, has been to suggest that the school year instead be lengthened by four days.

In a press release from the association's negotiating committee issued after the meeting last week, the teachers charge that the board's responses were intended to benefit James Moran, a professional negotiator appointed by the board.

"Mr. Moran has chosen to react to these proposals in a totally facetious manner in order to drag out negotiations as long as possible, as he is being paid an hourly rate by the board," the press release stated.

Board Reaction. Mr. Duncan said that the board hired Mr. Moran only after the Education Association brought in a professional negotiator to represent them. The teachers' negotiator, Mr. Duncan said, is paid by the New Jersey Education Association.

The teachers, in their statement to the press, said "there has been no discussion as to whether or not teachers will return to work in the fall without a contract."

Girls and Boys Work Together for Township

WHY, IT'S A GIRL! Yes, two of them. For the first time, Princeton Township has hired girls for the annual Summer Youth Program that does Township-wide maintenance of parks, playgrounds and roads. Left to right, starting with Robert Wood, who is bending over his shovel, are Martha Dorgan, Pat Kahny, Cindy Purvis, Shawn Craig, John Figueroa (kneeling), Bob McLusky and Mike Coda.

Every summer, a dozen kids sign up with Princeton Township to work under John Clausen, head of the Public Works Department, on the kind of outdoor work that has to be done in every town.

Usually — and indeed, this year, too — the workers are muscular young men. But in 1973, there is something new: a couple of muscular (sorry) young girls.

"First time we've hired girls — these two are great," says Mr. Clausen.

Cindy Purvis was digging a deep hole to support the new swings at Community Park playground when she paused to have her picture taken. Martha Dorgan was finishing the job of anchoring a new sandbox to its spot in the shade.

The eight workmen - uh, work-persons — in this picture were transferring playground equipment from John Witherspoon School, where it has served several generations of elementary school kids, to Community Park School where it will undoubtedly serve several more.

John Witherspoon, of course, will become the Middle School this fall, and will not need such juvenile frivolities. Community Park, formerly part of the Middle School, will become an elementary school and will need all the swings and sandboxes it can get.

The 12 young people in the program are 16 and 17 year-olds. They started June 25 and will work for ten weeks. Their work schedule is 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with half an hour for lunch — a 40-hour week. They get $1.75 an hour.

Mr Wynnycky's troubles began at 7:15 p.m. when his battery went dead as he was stopped for a stop sign at Cleveland Lane and Bayard Place He told police that he got out to push his car, thinking he could let it coast down the hill to get it started again.

As the car started to move, however, he tripped and fell. His car continued across Bayard Lane and up the drive at the Merwick Nursing Center. It struck one of the pillars on either side of the drive, pushing in the front end.

"For the first time we will be able to provide a technical service in the investigation of fires — something we were never before capable of," commented Chief Carnevale. "It's something we've wanted to do for many years." He added that he felt it was "a rather unique situation for a department of this size to be able to provide that capability."

Chief Carnevale outlined how the squad will operate. A member of the squad will respond to all general alarm fires and report to the Fire Chief. If the chief feels that the fire is of suspicious origin, the police arson squad will conduct its own investigation.

In addition, any fire resulting in death or injury will be investigated by the arson squad. The department's identification personnel will be available to the arson squad to assist in any investigation, Chief Carnevale said.

For tools to use at the scene, police have assembled a portable equipment locker that can be easily transported to any fire scene. The arson squad also has obtained a "sniffer" device which seeks out inflammable and explosive gas fumes and analyzes them — naptha, gas, kerosene and so on.

Not only is the machine able to provide a field analysis, Pfc. Hunter pointed out, but it is able to collect tiny deposits of a suspected inflammable substance in a filter which can later be sent to a police lab for analysis.

DIRECTORY AVAILABLE

On Child Care Services. A guide to child care programs in Mercer County has recently been published by the Mercer County Comprehensive Child Care Conference.

The guide contains complete information on all programs in the County that provide child care services. Listings include kindergartens, nursery schools, day care, after-school, and infant care programs, as well as educational centers for handicapped children.

The guide, entitled the "Mercer County Child Care Directory," provides relevant data for 77 separate child care programs. The Directory offers Mercer County residents the kind of information that will help in making arrangements for their personal child care needs.

Copies of the Directory are now available from the 4-C Office on 602 Greenwood Avenue, Trenton, or by calling 396-1683. A donation of $1 per copy is requested to help defray costs. Checks can be made payable to the Greater Mercer Comprehensive Planning Council at the above address, P.O. Box 3103.

The Directory is an outgrowth of a survey sponsored by the 4-C Survey Committee under the direction of Mrs. Mary Yates, Professor of Early Childhood Education, Trenton State College. Dr. Richard LeRiond of Rider College and his sociology students conducted the survey.

The Directory also incorporates the contents of the "Princeton Area Guide to Nursery Schools" published in 1972 by Carol Horowitz and Joy Reynolds.

Reminder to Pet Owners

With the temperatures soaring into the 80's regularly making for hot summer days, S.A.V.E. has offered a few reminders for pet owners.

Never leave a dog shut up in a car without plenty of ventilation. The interior of a car heats up rapidly in the sun, and heat prostration or even death can result.

Do not go away on vacation, leaving a dog or cat to be looked after by a neighbor, unless specific arrangements for care and feeding have been agreed upon. This arrangement very rarely works otherwise. Be sure plenty of fresh water is available. Cats as well as dogs need it in hot weather.

School Premises Closed

Community Park School's outdoor area is now closed to the public between sundown and sunrise every day, under a regulation from the Princeton Regional Board of Education.

The new closing hours have been established at the request of the Princeton Recreation Department to conform with regulations for Community Park, which is next door to the school.

Because the regulation comes from the school board, Township police now have the power to keep the public off the school grounds during evening hours. Before, police had no power to order people off property belonging to the schools. Authorized activities inside the school building are exempt.

UNIVERSITY GETS GRANT For Urban Transport Program. One of the State of New Jersey's first grants for support of a graduate program has been awarded to Princeton University's Master's Program in Urban Transportation under the year-old Independent Colleges and Universities Utilization Act.

Authorized by the New Jersey Legislature in May, 1972, the Act, which supports the role of independent institutions in the State's diversified system of higher education, provides for assistance to "specialized graduate professional programs for which, in the opinion of the Board of Higher Education, there is a State need."

According to Scott Higgins, Program Officer in the State's Office for Independent Colleges and Universities, "urban transportation is a distinct state need, and the Princeton program offers some very real possibilities for meeting that need. We are al," he says, "very excited about the program."

Initiated last September, Princeton's Urban Transportation Program is educating men and women for professional careers in transportation planning, systems analysis and management. Graduates of the program are expected to serve state and regional planning agencies, local communities, Federal agencies and the transportation industry in general.

Currently faculty members and students in the program are serving the Department of Planning and Development of the city of Trenton under a contract to assess transit alternatives for New Jersey's Capital.

The State grant of $52,650 per year for a 3 year period will enable the University to bring selected students into the Urban Transportation Program which is also receiving support from the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Administration.

SEVERAL PROGRAMS SET By State Museum Illustrated talks about New Jersey Indians, guided tours of the State House and discussions covering current art exhibitions are all included in the varied weekday fare to be served at the New Jersey State Museum this summer by its Bureau of Education.

Summer scheduling will continue through August 31. Each program is planned to last approximately 45 minutes.

The Indian discussions, designed to appeal to both youngsters and oldsters, will utilize films and artifacts from the museum's vast collections to give added meaning to the story of our native inhabitants. Scheduled for 10 a.m. and noon Monday through Friday, the Indian programs will be presented in the museum's lower level seminar room.

The State House tours, which will be conducted at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday thru Friday, will include visits to the legislative chambers and other major points of interest. Starting point for the tours is the information desk inside the main museum entrance.

The museum's current fine arts and decorative arts exhibitions will provide subject material for the gallery discussions scheduled for 2 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays and noon on Thursdays and Fridays. Groups will assemble at the museum information desk.

Also contributing to the variety of the Museum's July-August fare will be free movies in the auditorium at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 3 p.m. on Sundays. Each show will last from 50 to 60 minutes, and programs will change every three days.

The State Museum is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

BUT ARE WE COMPATIBLE? Barre Hunt asks the question of Dan Haughey in Summer Intime's production of Christopher Hampton's comedy, "The Philanthropist," now on the Murray Theatre stage as the first Summer Intime offering of the season.

News Of The THEATRES

INTIME READY

With "Philanthropist." Barre Hunt, one of the actors in Summer Intime's "The Philanthropist" is a friend of Christopher Hampton, who wrote the play. She says the playwright once described the three women in his play as "the spoiled brat, the woman of the world and the silent, good woman." Summer Intime isn't saying which part Barre Hunt plays, except that her stage name will be "Celia."

"The Philanthropist" opens this Thursday at 8:30 p.m., launching Summer Intime's four play drama series. The British comedy will play this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the following Thursday through Sunday. The Sunday night curtain is an hour earlier — at 7:30 p.m.

"The Philanthropist" will be followed by "The Birthday Party," which will play the weekends of July 19-22 and 26-29.

NEXT CONCERT THURSDAY

In Outdoor Series. A second concert under the stars in the North Court of the Princeton University Graduate College will present the Eastern Brass Quintet this Thursday evening at 8:30 p.m.

One of three such outdoor chamber concerts presented on campus this year by the Summer Chamber Concerts, it will be open to the public without charge. Since no formal seating is provided, the audience is advised to bring blankets. Parking is available adjoining the Graduate College off Springdale Road.

The Eastern Brass Quintet will be making a return engagement in the Summer Concert series, having performed here just a year ago. A group of young artists, the Quintet has already established itself as "among the small and select handful of America's true virtuoso brass ensembles," in one critic's view.

Members of the Quintet are, Charles Baxter, French horn; Robert Fanning, trombone; Richard Green, trumpet; Tucker Jolly, tuba; and William Wich, trumpet. Individually, they have performed with such groups as the Pierre Monteux Festival Orchestra and Brass Quintet, the New Haven Symphony, the Rochester Philharmonic, and the American Symphony Orchestra.

Their program for next Thursday evening will include selections from the works of Henry Purcell, Bach, Ingolf Dahl, Giovanni Gabrielli, and Mozart.

The first in the series of outdoor summer concerts took place at the Graduate College on June 14, and presented the music of the Tokyo String Quartet. It was termed a "terrific success" by Mrs. Barbara Sand, Director of the Summer Chamber Concerts.

The final concert, on July 26, will feature noted local musicians who perform as the Princeton Chamber Artists. Support for the concerts has come from individual music lovers of the community as well as local businesses with a major donation from E. R. Squibb and Sons, Inc. Contributions may be made by checks payable to the Trustees of Princeton University and sent to: Summer Chamber Concerts, Woolworth Center, Princeton University, Princeton, N.J. 08540. All contributions are tax deductible.

CARRADINE

"On Borrowed Time." John Carradine, whose acting career covers almost half a century, is starring in the 1938 play, "On Borrowed Time" now at the Bucks County Playhouse, New Hope. It will play through July 15.

In the play, Mr. Carradine plays a grandfather who wants to make sure, before he dies, that his grandson will be happy. John Favorite plays Death, in the guise of a man named "Mr. Brink." Timothy Flynn is the grandson. Nancy Andrews is co-starring with Mr. Carradine as Aunt Demetria.

Both Mr. Carradine and Miss Andrews played in the original stage production of "Tobacco Road" and have not worked together since that

WHICH ONE IS JAMES THURBER? The one gently laughing. This is a scene from the sketch "Take Her Up Tenderly," from "A Thurber Carnival," the revue with music that will open the summer season this weekend for the Princeton Theatre Company. Left to right are Rosary Nix, Alice White and Mark Capri.

The cast of "Forum" consists of ten men and eight women, including six dancers. Auditions will be held in the Trenton Times Community Room, 300 Perry Street, Trenton, Sunday at 2 p.m. and again Tuesday, July 10 at 8 p.m.

Set construction and costume departments need workers, too. Information about these assignments may be obtained from 737-1825.

The director of "Forum" will be Ina R. Wilner, who has done "Kismet," "Sweet Charity," "Plaza Suite" and "Mousetrap." The music director will be Herb Hunsberger, who also has done "Kismet" and "Sweet Charity" and "South Pacific" besides.

The choreographer will be Chip Gentles. He choreographed "Man of La Mancha" for the Olde Towne Players.

IT'S THURBER

By Princeton Theatre Co.

The new company of actors known as the Princeton Theatre Company has many alumni of last year's Summer Intime, including Dan Berkowitz, Shirley Kauffman, John Venema, Alice White, Larry Strichman, Anne Louise Hoffman and Richard Ferruglio.

These actors, joined by newcomers, including Sallie Brophy, director - actor and co-founder of PTC with Mr. Berkowitz, will introduce their new Princeton Theatre Company this Thursday at 8:30 with a production of James Thurber's "A Thurber Carnival."

The revue, with music, will be presented in the Fine Arts Theatre of Rider College on the Lawrenceville Road (Route 206). All PTC productions this summer will be given at the same location.

"A Thurber Carnival" will play again this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Performances the following weekend will follow the same schedule of days and times.

Thurber wrote some of the sketches in this revue especially for the stage, and adapted others from his famous stories. The "Carnival" includes "The Unicorn in the Garden," "The Night the Bed Fell," "The Last Flower" and of course, "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty."

Auditions for 20

Auditions for 20 roles in Street Theatre's original plays have already begun and will be held again this Thursday and Friday evenings between 7-9 p.m. in Dorothea House on the corner of Avalon Place and John Street.

Anyone above seventh grade is eligible to try out and to advance registration is necessary.

The three original scripts, which will be Street Theatre's second summer production, are "42nd Street Aggravation," by James Beckerman, "Penguin Dust" by Deborah Bellow and an untitled script by Richard Carlin.

Information about Street Theatre's two-part workshop in stage movement may be obtained by calling 921-8750.

BRAHMS WORKS PLANNED

For Westminster Series. Organist Joan Lippincott will perform the "Eleven Chorale Preludes, opus 122," of Johannes Brahms on Tuesday evening, July 24. The recital, which is part of the Westminster Choir College Summer Concert Series, will be held in Bristol Chapel beginning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lippincott, who is head of the Westminster Organ Department, is well known for her technique and sensitive musicianship, and is acknowledged to be one of the outstanding young organ virtuosos in America.

The chorale preludes were completed during May and June of 1896 in Ischl, Brahms' "favorite summing spot." Seven of the nine texts deal with thoughts of heaven and the grave, perhaps because Clara Schumann had recently died, and he himself was already suffering from the illness that would soon take his life.

Admission is $3, and tickets may be purchased at the door.

DANSKIN SALE: Edith Clayton is holding one of the many body suits and matching wrap skirts by Danskin that will be half price during Allen's Children's Center July sale.

IT'S NEW To Us

SALE DAYS ARE HERE

Children's Clothing Reduced. July is one of the great sale months of the year, and beginning the morning of July 5, Allen's Children's Center, 131 Nassau Street, will have reductions throughout the store. Hours are 9 to 5:30 Monday through Saturday.

Among the girl's clothing are some excellent half-price buys, such as all the Danskin shorts, slacks, tops, bodysuits and skirts in sizes 3x to 14. There are striped shirts for $5 and ones with a zipper opening for $6.25. (Prices quoted are the regular ones, not the sale prices.)

Blue slacks with a striped belt are $9.50 and solid slacks in navy, pink, orange, red or green with an elastic waist are $7. A sleeveless bodysuit with a design of small red and white patches and a white collar is $8.50, and wrap skirts to go with these bodysuits are $8.

Girl's dresses are also half-price, including tennis dresses from size 4. By Love there is one with red and blue trim and a pair of crossed rackets on the front, $11. We also saw Lacoste dresses such as one with a red skirt and a bodice that is half white and half navy and white striped, usually $20.

Other 50 percent off items are girl's light weight jackets, maternity bathing suits, dresses, slacks and blouses; and culotte pajamas such as a pink gingham pair with lace trim and ruffled cuffs, $5.

At 20 Percent Off. Then, throughout the store there will be a large choice of clothing at 20 percent reductions. For instance in the small child's department, there is a long wall of sunsuits. Here we saw a bright pink terry romper with a white tulip applique, $5, and a white sunsuit with red ricrac trim on a crayon printed material of dolls and trees, $8.

There are also boys shortalls, Healthtex shorts and coordinated shirts for boys and girls, swimming suits, robes, gowns, and selected boys' clothing on sale.

Alan Abelson told us that the boys clothing never is reduced as much as some of the girls' because the styles are more basic and because there are fewer manufacturers of boys' clothing which is making slacks and shirts that much harder to get.

However, there are still some nice sale items in the boys' department. Summer slacks are on sale, and we saw some nice madras slacks, one pair is even a patchwork of many madrasses, $12. Then there is a handsome thin triple stripe on a white background in red, blue or brown, $9.

Also, all the short sleeved polo shirts will be on sale and there is a huge selection of stripes, solids, button fronts, etc. For instance, in size 16 we saw 14 stacks of shirts by manufacturers such as Donmoor and Botany, beginning at $3.

Summer jackets and dress shirts will also be 20 percent off, as is all the above boys' clothing. Then there will be a special sale table where boys' cotton short sleeved shirts wil be three for $5, and a group of $12 sweaters will be $5.

ANYTHING GOES . . .

At Landau's Sales. If you pass by 131 Nassau Street on the morning of July 9, you may see a small lady changing her dress in a five-foot high closet, a car pool from Asbury Park unloading at the curb, a young woman trying on a bikini over her street clothes, or mild mannered

Mildred McKallen unexpectedly acting like the gendarme of the dressing rooms.

All this has taken place at Landau's over the last few years during the first day of its half price sale. Robert Landau told us that the greatest impact of past sales was always felt when everything was reduced 50 percent. Therefore, a few years ago he made the decision to begin immediately with the half price sale.

The naked mannequins in the window announce this sale where 95 percent of everything in stock is reduced 50 percent.

Shirts, slacks, skirts, blazers, dresses, bathing suits, evening wear — almost anything you can think of from the spring and summer collections, (with underwear and long-sleeved turtlenecks two of the few exceptions,) are on sale.

Change in Buying Habits. Landaus tried this kind of sale after the buying habits of their customers had changed. Several years ago the clothes were more basic and went on for many years, such as button-down oxford shirts and wrap skirts. What didn't sell one season could easily be kept for the next year, and still be highly saleable.

In those days, a 20 percent sale reduced the stock to be carried over, but it was not necessary to clean out the store. Now, with styles changing very quickly from year to year, Landaus doesn't want to carry over any stock, and this sale cleans out most everything in three to four weeks. Then there is a rummage at the very end for the few remaining items.

The sale has greatly increased the traffic in the store, and to Landau's pleasure many of these people become return customers. It is basically a brandname store. So, when a customer gets an Austin Hill pair of slacks for half price, she is getting an excellent buy; and if she enjoys them, this same customer often returns for another pair early the next season.

From a business point of view, the sale is some of the best advertising Landau's does. There is one other beneficial side effect in that the sale allows the store to purchase more fashionable and fringe items than it once did. If a purchase is not successful, this sale gives the store an opportunity to clear its stock.

In past years, people have not always wanted to leave this sale when the store closed at 5:30, so Landau's for the first time will have evening hours during the sale. The first two days, Monday and Tuesday, July 9 and 10, the store will remain open until 9. Then beginning Wednesday it will return to the regular hours of 9:30 to 5:30 Monday to Friday and 5 on Saturday.

Hate to Give Parties? Party Line Can Help

Holding up their end in the steady rounds of entertaining that go on in this town is more difficult than paying for it for some people.

If you have ever put off entertaining because planning a party was too much trouble or you were too busy or you just plain hate to cook, help has arrived.

It is Party Line, a complete party service. Carol Atkin, who has enjoyed cooking, designing invitations and dreaming up unusual parties through the years for friends and various organizations in town, has turned this talent into a business.

She will help you plan a dinner or party that you have in mind or will give you some ideas for a special "birthday" or "picnic" or fund raising affair.

Party Line will plan decorations, do invitations and cater. Food and baking is done at home and delivered the day of the party with instructions as to heating, serving, etc. If help is needed to serve or clean up at the party, this service can also be arranged.

Party Line has a list of menus available and will be happy to carry out your own ideas, if possible. The number to call is 924-7307.

News Of The Theatres

script that lets him rant, and the film too often veers more toward black comedy than documentary.

Perhaps no film or book will ever be able to portray Hitler as himself. He remains too much of a menace, too much of a cipher — unexplainable — which is possibly the reason behind the Hitler revival craze currently bedeviling Europe.

The film's problem is not so much that it has nothing new to add to what is already known about Hitler's final hours; the problem is, it doesn't know how to approach what is old.

It is not too surprising that before long the film is mired in black comedy. In the final minutes, Eva Braun regales her wedding guests with a rendition of "Toot, Toot, Tootsie" in blackface, while Hitler moderates a discussion of the most dramatic forms of suicide.

Guiness looks very much like the real Hitler, but he never is able to achieve the frightening hypnotic power which enabled him to persuade an entire nation to follow him to utter ruin. Although the film confirms much of what we have come to accept what happened, its impact is less than great.

PLAYHOUSE

The Sound of Music. Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer star in Sound of Music, which, since its release in March, 1965 has become one of the most profitable and most popular musicals of all time.

PRINCE

Jesus Christ Superstar. A hip, contemporary rock opera that brings the reverent, Biblical Jesus Christ down from the stained glass windows.

Fundamentalists may be jarred at seeing crowds wearing long hair, blue jeans and T shirts, but the film has been embraced by the young people as one that speaks in their idiom. The rock opera itself is a mixture of musical styles, pop culture and religion.

Tom Neeley, who had played Jesus in Broadway and Los Angeles stage productions, stars in the title role. Carl Anderson is Judas; Yvonne Elliman, Mary Magdalene; and Barry Dennen, Pontius Pilate.

MONTGOMERY

The Harrad Experiment. Based on the book by Robert H. Rimmer, which became a classic among the college crowd, the Harrad Experiment is part soft-core sex and part youth film masquerading as a fictional study of sexual mores. The resultant nudity interspersed with lectures is a bore.

In the sexual dictatorship of the Harrad Experiment, students are assigned roommates of the opposite sex and told they must live together for 30 days before switching partners. Nudity is not so much encouraged in class as demanded. The class is much more likely to be Advanced Yoga than English Lit.

Despite the control and care in enrollment, the students are about as stereotyped as a bunch as usual. Predicted pairings such as the resident stud with the campus virgin generate plenty of I'm-not-ready-yet scenes, which pad out the running time until the climactic capitulation.

James Whitmore and Tippi Hedren as the resident professor and his wife stand out only in that they get to keep their clothes on throughout. Not so the rest of the cast, which are motley enough in the buff that the clothing industry is the only one likely to enjoy this film. (R)

The Tennis Sub-Committee, under the chairmanship of Jackie McLaughlin of the Recreation Committee, has arranged the schedules and mailed notification to each student who enrolled in the program. Members of the committee from the community-at-large are Marion Halpin, Lorraine Haws and Tony Kate.

The Township Committee has let the contracts for the three additional tennis courts which will be erected adjacent to the present courts. The Recreation Committee recommended the erection of these courts in its five year plan. It is expected that the completion of these courts will help alleviate the congestion at the Courts.

ENROLLMENT RISES

At Engineering School. A record number of freshmen will enter Princeton University's School of Engineering and Applied Science next fall. Over 200 incoming students, including some 25 women, are expected to enroll for the academic year 1973-74.

At a time when engineering schools throughout the country are reporting declining enrollments, Princeton's Engineering School shows a steady upswing. Last year's entering class of 184 students represented a 36% increase over 1971 enrollments. This compares to an 11% decline in national engineering enrollments throughout the country for 1972. National figures for 1973 are not yet available.

The School's Dean, Robert G. Jahn, Professor of Aerospace Sciences, believes that the engineering profession is temporarily in disrepute because of what he calls "the anti-technology syndrome" and attributes the upsurge to several possible factors:

"Students, who are seeking a broader education," he says, "find attractive and challenging the total integration of the Engineering School into a relatively small, co-educational liberal arts university.

PLANNING ATTACKED

In West Windsor. The two West Windsor Democratic candidates, William A. Stuart and Peter J. Flatow, seeking election to Township government this November have announced that they want to play an important role in future planning decisions, asserting that they are appalled by the county's proposals for West Windsor.

The suggestion of a huge urban area for the northwest corner (West Windsor Lawrence border) of the Township is termed the height of folly and they oppose it.

"We do not feel that the county plan's proposed density for West Windsor is realistic in view of the land supporting characteristics and established neighborhoods of our Township. Factors such as ground water supply, lack of public sewers, high water table levels, desirable natural features, all dictate the choice of a much lower density for West Windsor. We do not favor high density development in West Windsor Township. We do favor intelligent land use planning.

"In the past, there has been no regional cooperation between Lawrence Township planners and West Windsor officials. Lawrence welcomed the Macy's site with no consideration of its effect on West Windsor. They got the big commercial ratable, but there's been no sign of cooperation between their officials and ours, and we don't see this situation improving.

"The Herbert Smith report, commissioned by Republican-controlled West Windsor administration and upon which West Windsor already has defended its construction moratorium in the courts, also shows this northwest area developing as 'PRD's' (Planned Residential Developments.) We have no idea what impact this will have for our Township. Local officials have given little explanation of what kind of PRD's they have in mind.

RIDER RAISES FEES

To Reduce Large Deficit. The Rider College Board of Trustees recently voted to increase room and board charges by $100 in an effort to reduce a projected $700,000 deficit for 1973-74 to $250,000.

The new yearly rates include: standard room rent, $490; deluxe room rent, $682.60; fall and spring semester board, $630, and board during January's Interim Study Program, $80.

"Rider College has not been spared the effect of this country's spiraling inflation during the past four years," Dr. Frank R. Elliott, president, said. "We have invaded our already modest endowment to cover operating deficits for the past three years but dare not continue to diminish its principal and income in this way any longer."

Noting the two budget areas hardest hit by inflation are food costs and maintenance, he added the trustees approved the increase in room and board rates "only with the greatest reluctance and only because we do not feel that an overburdened educational budget can continue to subsidize these costs.

"This increase, however, still leaves our fees for room and board among the lowest in the state," Dr. Elliott said.

Annual tuition will remain at $1,900, while room and board fees now will total $1,200.

The trustees also voted to increase the campus parking fee from $10 to $15 per year, also effective this September, to provide a student security patrol for resident students and to increase personnel services for commuting students.

The Governor's VIEW

By Gov. William T. Cahill

It is rare when an action pleases everybody. That's why I wasn't surprised two weeks ago when I was simultaneously praised and condemned for signing a bill postponing the mandatory automobile emission inspection for seven months.

The inspection program, designed to keep improperly operating automobiles from polluting our air, is vital if we are to achieve the clean air goals we have set in New Jersey. For this reason, I was very reluctant to sign the bill permitting the delay until February 1, 1974.

It was done, however, with the concurrence and on the recommendation of State Commissioner of Environmental Protection Richard J. Sullivan.

He was afraid that those who were opposed to full implementation of the program now might generate so much public confusion, and, therefore, opposition, that it was better to wait the additional seven months in order to achieve long range goals of a clean atmosphere for New Jersey.

Failure to Understand. Since the program has been underway for a full year on a voluntary basis without encountering any serious problems, it is difficult to appreciate the position of those opposed to it.

I suppose that a good part of the problem was, as it is in so many of these cases, the failure of many people to understand just what is involved. I think New Jersey also paid the penalty for being first in the nation with a new program of this kind for improving the quality of day-to-day living.

The program wasn't really that difficult to understand. It consisted of a 30-second check of the gases emitted by the exhaust pipe of an automobile when it was taken for its annual inspection.

The test detects the presence of carbon monoxide, a colorless, odorless gas which can cause dizziness, headaches and even death; hydrocarbons, unburned gasoline which, when released in exhaust fumes, irritates the eyes, nose and throat and makes breathing difficult; and smoke, which causes eye irritation and coats the throat and carries poisonous gases into the lungs.

Engine Adjustment. In almost all cases, the presence of these pollutants in exhaust emissions indicate that the car engine requires adjustment, usually to the ignition or the carburetor in the case of hydrocarbons or carbon monoxide, or repairs of the rings or valves when there is too much smoke.

Such repairs not only eliminate pollution, but they also make the car operate more smoothly and efficiently.

The purpose of starting the program on a voluntary basis for the first year was to give everyone an opportunity to become accustomed to the procedures involved and have the chance to learn to appreciate the value of the program.

Also, to give garages time to obtain and install the equipment so they could adjust auto engines to the required tolerances.

Failure Rate Only 11%. More than 1.6 million cars were tested the first year, and the failure rate was only a little under 11 percent. That hardly justifies any fear of public panic.

Also during the first year, more than 3,000 mechanics received some kind of training in the motor adjustments involved, and more than 1,300 service stations were equipped with pollution testing devices.

Despite the demonstrable success of the voluntary testing period, it seems that a fairly large segment of the public must still be wary of the program, as evidenced by the Legislature's overwhelming approval of the delay bill.

The legislators must guard against further delay. New Jersey is too urbanized, too densely populated to permit this hazard to increase unchecked. Why should we tolerate the haze of auto pollution that poisons our climate when the technology exists to end the menace.

But first, public understanding and public cooperation is essential.

MAILBOX

Princeton vs. Mid-West

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Princeton is a fairly large town by most standards; the University alone is attended by more bodies than make up the entire population of the Iowa town in which I have lived until now. Moreover, Princeton participates in the New York East Coast - Ivy League mystique, which would have us all believe that everything is better here.

Now, I like Princeton very much. It is a clean, beautiful place, and I am enjoying living here. However, as a member of the working community, I have to deplore the consistent lack of accommodation by major services in this town. In my Iowa town, we had a major supermarket that stayed open all night, several restaurants open until 2 a.m., banks open on Friday nights and Saturdays until noon, and dentists that worked on Saturdays and evenings.

In Princeton, apart from Friday evening banking (only until 7 p.m., I might add, instead of until 8 p.m., as at my banks in Iowa and Chicago) and one supermarket that stays open until 11 p.m. on week nights (which is all the way in Kingston), I have found none of these services in Princeton.

Round - the clock shopping and late night restaurants are merely conveniences, I admit. But lack of banking during times when working people can use the facilities is slightly more than that. And having to take off time from work or extend a lunch hour when one is paid by the hour in order to go to the dentist for necessary medical care is as though the town or the dentists were charging the extra $1 to $5 lost, which most working people can ill afford.

I haven't been in the area very long, and I do not know how prevalent these conditions are, but as I look around me all I see is places like the public library and other stores curtailing service for the summer, further impoverishing the lives of people who have to work, and I think of my Iowa town, which had none of the cultural advantages of Princeton, and I almost wish that I were back in the backwards, unsophisticated Mid-West.

Sidewalk to Nowhere.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

The follwing is a copy of a letter I have written to the Princeton Township Committee.

ARNOLD I. DUMEY
641 Mt. Lucas Road

I live on a part of Mt. Lucas Road across from the Seminary property, and near a point where, as one goes north, Mt. Lucas Road bends almost forty degrees west and also descends.

In the last few years, there have been a couple of serious automobile accidents in the vicinity of this stretch.

A few weeks ago, I came across a team of men engaged in widening the road in front of my house, adding about four and a half feet to the east side of the road. I pointed out to them that this had the effect of increasing the angle of road bend.

They mumbled something and went on with their work. I comforted myself with the thought that drivers could still use the old road.

My comfort was short-lived. Last week, a new crew began to narrow the road on the west side, and install a curb alongside. Of course, the usual ceremony of destroying good large trees was scrupulously performed.

Recent heavy rains have shown that the curbing effectively prevents drainage into the natural basin on the west side of the road.

What will the endproduct of all this activity be? A sidewalk from nowhere to nowhere, a kind of Horizontal Tower of Babel.

The work is done, the Great God Concrete has had his sacrifice. Why not follow up with something sensible now?

I suggest breaking up this supine monument and carting the debris away to be recycled. The trees will stay lost.

Failing this, it is only decent to put up signs to each end of the sidewalk, pointing out that the unused and unusable folly is not there because of an aberration by the learned Seminary, but because of bureaucratic enforcement of a silly ordinance.

Another Light Needed.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

At last! New traffic lights where we really need them! But why not a fourth, very essential one? At Snowden and Nassau.

This is a four-way intersection, as Snowden crosses Nassau to become Riverside Drive which is a school street. This intersection is also an important bus stop.

Elm at Stockton is a T intersection. Traffic entering Stockton Street comes only from one direction. At Snowden-Riverside it comes from north and south, trying to enter east and west. Cars are often lined up in three directions waiting for a break to make left turns.

You cannot even make a right turn into Nassau Street unless there is a break in the east-west traffic. Take a count between five and seven p.m. and see what a busy intersection it is!

NOW Answers University.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Princeton University's attempt to deny NOW's charge of discrimination against women in employment (TOWN TOPICS, June 28) is clearly unreasonable.

That only two women were tenured by Princeton in the past three years, and that women are less than two percent of a tenured faculty of 360-370 is prima facie evidence of discrimination, as is the fact that a number of departments at Princeton in fields in which women earn a substantial proportion of the doctorates are still hiring males only.

Women have for well over a decade been earning 25-40% of the doctorates in several major fields represented at Princeton.

In addition, the University's attitude toward its deactivation of anti-nepotism, full-time-only-tenure, and other such de facto discriminatory policies, is disconcerting: it is insensitive to boast that one has stopped an unfair practice, even if others have also been guilty of the practice.

Finally, it is very disappointing that Princeton has declined so far to give NOW members and other concerned women, including those within the University, the credit they deserve for suggesting and promoting such 'creative and constructive' innovations as child-rearing leaves for parents regardless of sex.

NOW is interested in progress. It profits no one for an adversary relationship between the University and a responsible and plainspoken civil rights organization to be set up and played out via the media.

NOW has repeatedly offered to work cooperatively and in good faith with the University toward the development of truly fair employment and other practices of interest to women. I reiterate that offer.

Park Improvements.

To the editor of Town Topics:

A public word of thanks is due to several Princeton citizens and heads of government bureaus who have made possible the delightful recent improvements in the Hamilton Avenue Park.

Mr. Donald Harney, chief engineer of the Borough, regraded the park, ordered new swings and benches, and had gates installed at each end for the safety of younger children. Mr. Donald Barr Recreation Department director, agreed to run a summer Tiny Tots program Monday-Friday mornings for children five and under.

This program is open to all children in Princeton Borough and Township, but children must be accompanied by a parent or babysitter. (Parents may 'kid-pool'; one adult can be responsible for as many as four children.) Mr. Barr also obtained for us the 'star' of the playground, the glorious "bug slide" that now reigns supreme over the Chestnut Street-Hamilton Avenue corner of the park!

The slide was second-hand, but Mr. George Clausen, head of the Borough Garage and his daughter, Mrs. Suzanne Brassel have made it literally better than new. An enormous 'thank you' is owed all of these people.

This chain of happy events was set in motion when several mothers who live in the park's vicinity (notably Regine Hirsch, Sharon Powell and Rhona Porter) contacted members of Borough Council. This lesson in parent power should not be missed by other parents in the community.

If citizens are interested in forming neighborhood groups to discuss means of upgrading other Borough parks, please contact me or Councilman Martin Lambardo.

Borough Councilwoman

Bicycle Dangers Discussed

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of a letter I have sent to Charles E. St. John replying to his letter in TOWN TOPICS, June 28, on the dangers of bicycling in Princeton.

Frederick M. Porter Jr.
Township Police Chief

With due apologies to you for the late reply to your letter dated June 24, 1973 regarding present bicycle danger in Princeton.

The statements in the Princeton Packet and Town Topics were quotations intended to make the public aware of, especially bicycle riders, their responsibility and obligations to the laws governing the use of bicycles on the roads and highways.

As you say, "cycling is increasing and will continue to increase", I agree with you. However, I don't feel enforcement of the law is the complete answer to our cycling problems. Parental guidance and education has to play an important part in bicycle and pedestrian traffic safety habits. There must be complete cooperation between all concerned: the parents, schools and Police Department.

lice Department yearly conducts a two-week traffic safety program throughout the Princeton Regional Elementary Schools. This program is well designed and conducted by Patrolman Mario Musso who has received specialized training in this area. The department is doing a fine job in this area, especially since this is the first bicycle death in Princeton Township in over a period of 22 years.

The Police Department will continue to strive to make the streets, roads and highways safe for bicyclists, motorists and pedestrians to travel in safety.

Save Recreational Land

To the Editor of Town Topics:

With our ever decreasing land area that could be used for parks and recreational areas, our elected part-time township officials are telling you, not asking, to have another piece of prime recreational area turned into a money gathering temple for their use once a month. If this is such an important decision for township residents, why ignore the resident's needs?

Where between Princeton and Dutch Neck - Edinburg area can any volunteering group hope to gather together for a fund raising purpose? Penns Neck and Rt. 1 have absolutely nothing to offer even though the housing developers who should provide recreational areas did not and chose to give the town money in lieu of area. Princeton Jct. area is filled with houses and businesses.

Colonial Park, Wellington Estates and others are also filled with homes with developers giving money to the township in lieu. Dutch Neck area could have but doesn't. Grovers Mill has a lake that could be developed but has been ignored. At one time the West Windsor Lions Club tried to dredge the lake but the job was too big.

Van Ness Park was a fenced piece of ground until the West Windsor Lions built and donated a pavilion and fireplaces. After a long time, the township put in two portable bathrooms. Forgotten Edinburg is developing their own recreational area on a piece of swampy ground. The only worthwhile area is the tennis courts. Bravo!

As long as I have been in this township, there was a Master Plan developed by many a dedicated township resident over a period of many hard working man hours. Our township committee says, "Who cares — scrap it, we want a temple". This affair will cost only a million, just like our school cost seven million. We need more grade schools now at what price? We need sewers at what price?

We need a larger police force to help hold down our increasing crime. We need — our farming community has been forced to move, the old timers who developed this area living on fixed pensions are moving. The next group that has to move are the under middle income group. Eventually, all we will have in this rich community will be rich commuting — temporary residents who will use this town as a temporary resting place.

Has our elected township committee given a thought of how this Coward tract has been and could be developed? The Dutch Neck Fire Co. has used this land successfully to raise needed funds by bringing in a circus. The West Windsor Lions Club has pleased over 500 children per year during their Egg Hunt. Princeton Jct. Fire Co. has used this ground as a fund raiser.

Would you put these fund raising volunteers out in the boondocks where no one will ever go to see? How many people went to the horse shows held on Conover Rd by the Dutch Neck Fire Co. a few years ago? How many more people who would have attended had it been held on the Coward Park?

As for future uses, have our elected officials even given a moment's thought to its use besides building their part-time temple! How about the Twin-W rescue squad holding a large flea market on the grounds, renting table space to anyone. Cub or Boy Scouts holding a jamboree to show their accomplishment.

A bandstand shell erected at the bottom of the small hill to have school bands, college bands, chorus groups perform while people are seated on the ground watching their children perform. Our Brownies, Girl Scouts and 4-H group showing their training skills while raising funds for their groups.

There are other places the committee could consider which could be gotten so very much cheaper, and does a part time committee need a huge costly part time temple?

Pharmacy Footnotes

by Mel Atlas, Reg. Pharm.

The outside of bones is made up of a hard material known as compact bone. Another kind of bone, found only inside the bones, is spongy bone. It is called this because of the many little holes in it. In long bones the spongy part is found at the rounded ends. The hollow part is filled with marrow. As your body grows older, your bones grow thicker. When a bone is broken, healing takes place through the action of the bone making cells in the bone and its covering membrane.

It's Cooler (and more fun) in the Library

It's cool inside, there's lots of company if you want it and solitude if you don't, and a wide variety of bustling things to do — what more could anybody want in summertime?

The place is Princeton's Public Library which comes as close to a Community Center as any spot in town. During the summer, the library will be open until 9 at night Monday through Thursday, and Saturday mornings until 12:30.

Movies for young and old, story-hours, music sessions (live), swapping sessions for stamp collectors, jigsaw puzzles to work and Scrabble to play, records to hear . . . .

Next Tuesday, the library will have two showings of "The Maltese Falcon." It's a chance to see the full uncut classic: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Sidney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre and the rest, all without commercials.

"The Maltese Falcon" will be shown at 10:30 a.m., for people who don't like to go out at night, and at 8 p.m. for people who don't like to stay home at night. The program is free.

(It costs a lot of money to rent films like this, and so the library has scheduled only two for the summer. The next one will be "Born Yesterday," to be screened twice on August 14.)

For the Young. "Films for Children" will be shown every Wednesday at 3 p.m. through August 1. For next Wednesday, July 11, the library has signed up "Alphabet," described as "an amusing romp through the letters of the alphabet," and "Le Capitain H," a trip along the Seine in an oil barge. The first lasts six minutes, the second one 20 minutes, just right for a young attention span.

On July 18, the library will show "Catch the Joy," a dunebuggy ride set to rock-and-roll, and "Harold and the Purple Crayon," an animated cartoon. The library has a folder listing the rest of the summer films for children, warning that changes may have to be made without notice.

Tell Me A Story. 'John Counts' story hours for children are almost as much a library institution as the library card. Mr. Counts, the librarian at Littlebrook School, takes a busman's holiday every summer to read to children at the library.

Youngsters six years and older, may gather around Mr. Counts on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. The programs, which last 50 minutes, feature story favorites. The next one will be July 9, and they will continue through July 30.

Pre - schoolers, between three and one-half and five, are invited to half-hour programs on Tuesday afternoons at 1:30. For half an hour, Edith Kogan does readings and shows filmstrips, and she will continue these programs every Tuesday through July 31.

No need to sign up in advance for these story-hours: just come.

Stamps! The library does ask you to sign up in advance for the "Stamp Swap" scheduled for next Thursday, July 12 at 3 p.m. in the children's department.

This workshop — if anything so much fun can be called that — will be limited to 25 young people, and advance registration must be made. A philatelist will offer suggestions on how to choose albums, how to mount stamps and — how to finance your hobby!

The Lonesome Drifters will gather around the curving library stairs next Thursday, July 12, "after hours" — that is, at 9 p.m. after the circulation desk has closed down. The Drifters are Steve Miller, Jerry Steele, Skip Kennedy, Ted Waddell and Ray Gernhart. They will be joined by young Princeton residents singing their own songs: Jim Wanzel, Milo Wadlin, Todd Marshall and Kathy Blount.

The second after - hours music program will be Thursday, July 22. Caroline Moseley will sing folk-songs.

Games people play is, for the library, more than the title of a book. Checkers, chess, and Scrabble are always big favorites. In the children's room are Probe, Soma, Trimino, dominoes and jig-saw puzzles of such favorites as Jack and the Beanstalk, Little Miss Panda and a sneaky two-sided one on the circus.

And of course — books. "Hot titles for cool reading" — that's the way the children's room says it.

They like "Milton, the Early Riser" for ages three to five; "The Four Donkeys" for the fives to nines; "The Great Brain Reforms" and "The Truth about Mary Rose" for ages nine to twelve; "Fog" for the older kids, eleven to thirteen and the beloved Arthur Rackham "Once Upon a Time," for any age at all.

Take a Book on Vacation

Princeton's librarian Robert Staples always has a sense of personal—well, failure—when books he thinks are unworthy hit Princeton's best-seller list.

A pair of fast-movers at the library have made him mourn in recent weeks. They are Elliott Roosevelt's "Untold Story," about his parents, and Barbara Howard's Washington expose, "Laughing all the Way."

But Mr Staples brightens over the success of three other books that are moving fast at the library. All are fiction: Doris Lessing's "The Summer Before the Dark," Iris Murdoch's "The Black Prince," and the first novel by journalist Tom Wicker. It's "Facing the Lions," and it's about—politics.

A sound book of popular psychology, in Mr. Staples' estimation, has found favor with the library's clientele. It's Eda Le Shan's "The Wonderful Crisis of Middle Age," a title if there ever was one. Mr. S. suggests reading it along with the Doris Lessing "Summer Before the Dark," a novel about a middle-aged woman.

NEW BUS POLICY VOTED By West Windsor Board. The West Windsor-Plainsboro Regional School Board, at its regular monthly meeting held last week at the Maurice Hawk School, approved a new transportation policy. The new plan designates, by grade level, the distance a child must live from his school before transportation will be provided.

Under the new plan, students in kindergarten and first grade will walk no more than one mile. Students in grades two, three and four will walk no more than 1.7 miles. Students in grades five through eight will walk no more than two miles, and high school students, no more than 2.5 miles.

Dr. William Watt, chairman of the Transportation Policy Task Force which proposed the policy, referred to it as "realistic," stating it is closer to the actual practice presently being followed by the Board than any of the other plans considered by his committee.

The Board will continue to transport students if they live within the walking distance specified, only if their route to school is determined to be "unsafe" and the shortest alternate route would require them to walk a greater distance than that prescribed in the policy.

One Negative Vote. The revised policy does not define or designate "unsafe conditions." This determination will be made by the school administration.

Mrs. Dorothea Baer cast the only negative vote stating she felt 1.7 miles was "too far" for a child to walk since it would take 40-45 minutes.

Walter Golden, Clerk of the Works, presented his monthly report on the progress of the construction of the high school. Mr. Golden rated the overall progress for the month as fair. He indicated that preparations were being completed for the installation of carpeting in the library media center.

Dr. Robert Hiltenbrand, Director of Instruction, in presenting his monthly report, discussed plans to relocate the equipment and software presently located in the district's Instructional Media Center into the libraries of the three elementary schools in order to convert them to library-media centers. Also included in the planning is the establishment of a district-wide library card catalogue enabling each school to participate in an inter-library loan program.

"Resource Room." Dr. Hiltenbrand also explained the district's summer remedial and Title 1 programs and, along with Mr. Appleby, Coordinator of Special Services, discussed plans for the establishment of a "Resource Room" in the Maurice Hawk School. This program will allow special education students to participate in an intensive individualized program designed to overcome specific learning disabilities.

Frank Miller, architect with Uniplan of Princeton, was appointed to develop plans for the renovation and expansion of the Dutch Neck School to the Board in May.

In other business, the Board approved a change in the grade levels assigned to the district schools for the 1973-74 school year.

As a result of this action, the Dutch Neck School will house students in grades four through six, the Maurice Hawk School will contain students in grades kindergarten through third with an additional three sections of fourth grade, and the Plainsboro School will house students in kindergarten through third grade along with four sixth grade classes.

LIBRARY HOURS ALTERED For Summer Months. Through July and August the Princeton Public Library will close at 12:30 each Saturday, and at 5:30 Fridays. The complete summer schedule for the library is Monday - Thursday, 9-9; Friday, 9-5:30; and Saturday, 9-12:30. When the library is closed books and other materials may be returned through the book return box located in the parking lot at the south end of the building.

$50,000 BARN FIRE In Lawrence Township. A wind-swept fire fought off the efforts of five fire companies to quell it Thursday afternoon and gutted a dairy barn at the farm of Frank E. Hendrickson of Cold Soil Road, Lawrence Township.

There was no loss of livestock but damage to the barn and equipment was estimated at $50,000. It's cause was unknown.

The fire was first observed by Lee Hendrickson, 37, and his brother, Allan, 33, and Mr. Hendrickson, 75, as they were working in an adjoining field. They chased 20 cows inside the barn to safety. Fifty Holsteins were grazing in a nearby field.

Lost in the blaze were several pieces of farm equipment, a 30-foot wooden silo, and some 600 bales of hay that had just been placed in the barn a week ago. The milking equipment was saved, however.

The blaze was fought by firemen from the Slackwood, Lawrence Road and Lawrenceville fire companies, assisted by volunteers from East Windsor and Washington Township who arrived later with water tank trucks.

No firemen were reported hurt. The barn was gutted in 90 minutes from the time it was discovered at 12:45 p.m.

SUMMER CLASSES SET At Studio on the Canal. Drawing, painting in all media is scheduled for a 10-week term at the Studio on the Canal beginning July 9 and continuing through September 16.

A morning and afternoon session is offered for landscape painting, weather permitting. Still life and figure painting is offered when confined because of weather. Painting in any media with individual instruction will be directed.

The popular supper hour session will be given from 5:30 to 8 p.m. to include landscape and figure studies with outdoor background. Also an evening session, with emphasis on the figure will continue, including still life. Students may work in any media.

The workshops will be conducted by Rex Goreleigh, the studio's director.

Ever wonder why golf courses have 18 holes instead of some other number? Actually, in the early days of golf's development in England, different courses did have different numbers of holes. For example, when the first British Open was played, at the Prestwick Club in 1860, that course had only 12 holes. Some other courses then had 7 holes, some had 8, some had 14. But the most famous course, the St. Andrews Club of Scotland, just happened to have 18 holes—and in the years following 1860, other courses increased to 18 holes merely to follow the pattern set by St. Andrews. And, thus 18 holes became the standard for golf courses everywhere.

One question a lot of fishermen ask is what's the biggest fish ever caught? The official record for catching a salt water fish with rod and reel, is held by an Australian, Alfred Dean, who hooked a shark that weighed 2,664 pounds! The shark was just two inches short of being 17 feet long. Dean made his record catch in 1959.

Now that we've mentioned the biggest salt water fish ever caught, do you know what the record is for the biggest fresh water fish ever hooked? The record was set by William Cravens who caught a white sturgeon in the Snake River of Idaho in 1956. The fish weighed 380 pounds and measured 111 inches.

I bet you didn't know that any old fish can float downstream, but it takes a good one to swim against the current. Same with insurance agents, all the employees of S. D. & B. are expert swimmers.

PCR WINS TWO GAMES

In Adult Softball League. PCR broke into the win column with power last week as it defeated Andy's Tavern, 14-2, and Sports 'N Things, 14-10, in PRD softball league action.

Princeton Chemical Research has been steadily improving and has developed into a strong hitting club. Pete Ferrara led his team with a brilliant 7-for-8 week, including two home-runs in the victory over Sports 'N Things.

PCR trailed 10-9 going to bat in the seventh inning, but came up with five runs on hits by Alfred Federico, Bob Ellis, Pete Ferrara and Mike Maguire. In coming up with their highest run total of the year, Sports 'N Things put together a six-run third inning on hits by Dennis Clarke, Gary Fowler, Steve Perone, Buddy Kleiber and Jon Jenneret.

Sports 'N Things was not so fortunate on Monday evening as it fell victim to Sannino's, 8-2. Tom Brophy again led Sannino's hitting attack with three hits in as many times at the plate.

Sannino's extended its winning streak to six by defeating PIASC, 3-0, in a game in which there were only nine hits by both teams. A run was not scored until the fifth inning when Mark Anderson scored on Jack Rossi's sacrifice fly. Sannino's tallied two more runs in the sixth inning on hits by Bill McQuade and Bruce Sandvick.

PIASC also lost a close game on Monday evening to Conte-Staats, 6-5. The Italian-Americans scored one run in their last time at bat and got the tying runner on base, but couldn't move him into scoring position. Frank Cawley's single in the top half of the seventh inning scored his brother, Wes, with what was to be the diference in the game.

Ivy Inn extended its unbeaten streak to seven games by defeating Center Sports and Andy's Tavern, 8-3 and 16-3. Ivy again made few mistakes in disposing of both clubs.

Center Sports nuhit Ivy, 10-11, but brilliant defensive plays by Albie Toto shut of several potential Center Sports' rallies. Bob Sweeney led all hitters with a 3-for-4 performance at the plate. In addition to his fine defensive play, Ivy's Toto also collected a single and a double at the plate.

Center Sports rebounded with 3-0 extra inning victory over Hinds. It went nine innings before a run scored. Both teams had nine hits in the contest. Center Sports picked up its three runs in the top half of the ninth on hits by Jaime Petrone, Mike Guadagno, John McCreedy, and Steve Sanders.

EAGLES ARE JOLTED

Lose Two In Little League Play. Previously unbeaten Eagles were jolted last week when they were defeated twice: 7-1 by Italian American Sportsmen Club (the win was its first) and 5-2 by Post 76.

Winning pitcher Dave Sally of IASC silenced the Eagle bats, and his teammates, led by Mario Mangone, provided him with enough runs. In the Eagle loss to Post 76, Woody Clark bested Rich Johnson in a pitcher's duel.

Winless Hook & Ladder went down to defeat against unbeaten Roma Eterna, John Rosenthal getting credit for the 11-4 win. H&L's only consolation was that it scored more runs against the Roma defense than any other team has so far this season.

In another game, it looked as if Hook & Ladder was finally going to break through and win its first. It was just one strike away from victory in a free-swinging game with Engine No. 1.

Boby Pirone, No. 1's last hope, stepped to the plate with two down, two on and his team trailing by one. With two strikes on him, he rifled a double to right center to give his team a dramatic, 12-11 victory.

Earlier, H&L had built a 7-0 lead after four innings on the hitting of Kevin Cooke, Al Dandell and Alex Colt.

Engine No. 1's second game with Elks was expected to be a close match between two equal teams but it turned out to be no contest. Keith Phox took care of the pitching by fanning 15 Elk batters. Teammates Pete Sharpless and Paul Heintzel took care of the offense, Sharpless homering and Heintzel collecting three hits. Chris Wallace's two hits led the Elk attack.

In other games, Engine No. 3 edged IASC, 7-6, on a triple by Joe Kearns that scored two runs in the bottom of the last inning and Rome Eterna blanked the Elks behind the hurling of Carl Nazzaro.

The standings:

Post 76	5	1	.833

PRINCETON PAIR NO. 2

In Drexel Hill Tennis Event. Randy Thomas of Princeton, paired with Ray Guyer, reached the finals of the 18 and under doubles competition of the Philadelphia and District Boys Junior Tennis Championship held last week at Drexel Hill, Pa.

In the finals, Thomas and Guyer, seeded No. 2, lost to the No. 1 seeded pair of Peter Waltz and Marc Barenberg, 6-4, 6-3. In singles competition, Randy advanced to the final round of 16 before being eliminated.

Another doubles team of Nick Van deWalle of Princeton and Alex Davisson reached the semi-finals at Drexel Hill where they lost to the No. 1 seeded pair of Dave Kusko and Neil Abrams, 6-7, 6-4, 6-0. They were ahead 4-0 in the second set after winning the first, but then their game fell apart and they lost 12 consecutive games.

Other entries to the event from the Princeton area included Dan Schulman, Chris Miller, Fred Berklehammer, Jeff Lyle and Dwight Wilson. Earlier in the week, Schulman, Miller and Lyle participated in the Pennsylvania State Boys Championships at Bala Cynwyd.

NASSAU CLUB VICTOR

In Opening Swim Meet. The Nassau Swim Club won its opening dual meet of the season last week, defeating Stonybrook Swim Club of Hopewell, 176-131, in the latter's pool.

Coached by Bruce Nystrom, the Nassau Club finished first last year in the 12-team Princeton Area Swimming and Diving Association with an 8-0 record.

Double winners for Nassau were Pierre Coutin, 17 and under boys 50-yard backstroke and 200-yard individual med-

TEST LINE: Fisherman can appreciate this catch by David Horowitz of Brunswick Pike who caught a 15 lb. 2 oz. snook last month while fishing at Florida's Everglades National Park. He was spin-casting, using live shrimp and a 10 lb. test line. This is the fourth trophy fish taken by Dave, who was a student last year at the University of Tampa. 3 WAY TIE FOR LEAD

In Babe Ruth League, New York Life won two games last week to force a three-way tie for first place in the Princeton Babe Ruth League, while Princeton Bank and Trust dropped a pair to remain winless in three starts.

League activity wil be postponed for a week while the Princeton All Star team competes in the District One Babe Ruth Tournament at Eggerts Crossing Field.

Mike Boonin got both New York Life wins. Against PB&T, he pitched five scoreless innings of relief ball to earn a 5-2 decision. Jon Silverman, who batted 2 for 2, got the only hit yielded by Boonin. Jon Miller was 2-for-2 for NYL and Dave Seagers, Scott Thompson, Jim Lennon and Boonin also hit safely.

NYL's second win was a 2-1 shading of Thorne's Pharmacy, Boonin again coming through in relief. Thompson scored the winning run in the seventh on Senger's single. Lewis Davis singled home Thorne's lone run, as Jim LaPlaca took the loss.

In another game, Jim LaPlaca and Dave Shillaber combined on the mound to pitch Thorne's to a 1-0 shutout over PBA. Dan Aronovic scored the game's only run.

Losing pitcher Joe Herrman gave up only three hits, all singles by Lewis Gumbmer. Bob McHugh had two hits for the losers.

PBA came back in its second game, however, stopping PB&T, 10-3. McHugh gave up only five hits to the Bank and was aided by Jeff Petrone's three hits. For the losers, Curt Helm stroked two hits. Jon Silverman was tagged with the loss.

GREEN RALIES FOR WIN

In Summer Lacrosse, Green scored seven goals in the second half to overcome a 4-1 halftime lead by Navy last week to win its second game in the Princeton Summer Lacrosse League, 8-6. Red defeated Blue, 7-5, to remain tied for the lead with Green. Each has 2-0 records.

Mark Cleary led the victorious Green with three goals, while Fredie Baruch added a pair. Scoring single goals were Stu Frazier, Wayne Beitz and Phil Matheiss. Jerry Middlemiss had two goals for Navy. Also scoring for the losers were Bill Donaldson, Joe McGuinn and Mace Mohrmann.

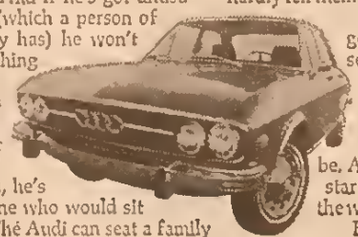
You get just about the same headroom and legroom in an Audi 100 LS as you do in a Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow.

The Audi 100LS isn't a very big car. On the outside.

But don't let that fool you about the size of the car on the inside.

You'll find there's more headroom than you'd ever expect. Enough for, say, a person 6'6". And if he's got unusually long legs (which a person of his size usually has) he won't have to sit clutching his knees. Because there's more legroom than you'd ever expect.



Mind you, he's not the only one who would sit comfortably. The Audi can seat a family of five rather nicely.

Now the Rolls-Royce isn't the only great car the Audi has a lot in common with.

The Audi has rack-and-pinion steering like the racing Ferrari. And front-wheel drive like the Cadillac Eldorado.

The Audi has the same amount of trunk space as the Lincoln Continental Mark IV. And independent front suspension like the Aston Martin.

Our interior looks so much like that of the Mercedes-Benz 280SE, you can hardly tell them apart.

And as for service, you'll get the same kind of expert service a Volkswagen gets. Because a Porsche Audi dealer is part of the VW organization.

Impressed? You should be. After all, the Audi bears a startling similarity to some of the world's finest automobiles.

But what makes the Audi especially impressive is its price tag.

It's a lot less than you'd expect to pay for that many great cars.

The Audi®
It's a lot of cars for the money.

POST 76 IS 12-1 In Legion Ball Last Week

Princeton Post 76 won one, lost two and tied one in Legion ball last week. Failure to gain ground means the Princeton team has no hope of catching front-runner Ewing 314 which has an 11-2 record.

Monday at the university's Clark Field Princeton was set down, 3-1, by Mike Beck of Bordentown 26, who tossed a three hitter. Gary Leonardo drove in the losers' only run in the second inning. Outfielders Dave Pone and Bob Zinsmeister had the other two Post 76 hits. George Reynolds took the loss.

Saturday Princeton defeated North Trenton Post 458 3-1, behind the pitching of Greg Christiansen who scattered eight hits. After Trenton has scored its only run in the second, Princeton evened the score in the third when Chris Crane singled home George Boccanfuso.

Princeton took the lead in the sixth. With Gary Rohm on third and Leonardo on second the result of a pair of singles, error and stolen base, Pone laid down a squeeze bunt. The charging Rohm scored and when the pitcher Charlie Didun threw the ball over the first baseman's head, Leonardo scored on the error.

Leonardo, Pone and Christiansen each had two hits for Post 76. Christiansen raised his record to 3-0 with the win.

In a replay of a tie earlier in the season, Hightstown's pitcher Jamie Ivins blanked Princeton, 3-0, on a two hitter. Pone and Zinsmeister were the lone Post 76 batters to solve him.

Last Wednesday, Trenton Post 93 and Princeton battled to a 5-5 tie.

Leonardo, the starting pitcher for Princeton, worked four and a third innings, giving up six hits and four earned runs. He walked six and struck out seven. John Mooney, in relief, yielded two hits, one run while walking one and fanning two.

Princeton took a 5-4 lead in the sixth on a single by Leonardo but Trenton's Sal Angotti tied it with a single in the bottom of the sixth.

RACE THIS WEEK

For Crew on Henley. Princeton University's varsity lightweight crew will be under heavy pressure to maintain its undefeated 1973 record when it competes in the annual Royal Henley Regatta Thames Cup race in Henley, England this week.

Princeton won all eight of its starts during the regular season including a great victory in the Eastern Sprints over a strong Harvard crew.

Coach Gary Kilpatrick will head up a 12 man squad which includes coxswain Ed Bohlen, captain Art Oller, and oarsmen Tom Daley, Greg Hamilton, Bill Hayne, Pete Kelsey, Steve Kincke, Pete Maxson, Pete McCagg, Bob Redfern, and Bill Walton.

The single elimination competition includes crews from Washington and Wisconsin along with standout teams from Germany and England.

Women's Crew Undefeated. Women's crew at Princeton University is only two years old but the fledgling program has made massive strides in an amazingly short time.

After a struggling first season, the women pulled together this past spring and were undefeated in 10 dual meets. They finished fourth in the Eastern and then improved on that finish in the Nationals, coming in third, two seconds behind the front running Radcliffe boat and only 2 of a second in back of the Vesper Club.

Rowing for the Tigers were Ann Marie Eleftherу, Cathy Brown, Laura Drummond, Jo-Ann Casper, Margaret Sieck, and Cathy Husman. Mary Levkoff was the coxswain.

SHEA NAMED CAPTAIN

Of '74 Lacrosse Team. Jim Shea, a senior attackman from Baltimore, Md. has been elected captain of the 1974 Princeton University lacrosse team.

Shea, a letterman with the 1971 freshman team, has been a starter with the varsity for the past two seasons while scoring 63 points.

This past spring, he played on a bad ankle most of the season but still increased his scoring total from 28 to 35 points. Shea has won two varsity soccer letters at Princeton and served as captain of the 1970 freshman team.

HERSHEY NET TITLE WON

By Princeton's Jay Lapidus. Jay Lapidus of Galbreath Dr., won the Hershey, Pa. boys 14 and under tennis tournament last month, defeating the third and fourth seeded players en route. It was his third junior tournament of the summer.

In the first, he reached the semi finals of the Middle States Boys' 16 Interscholastics. In the second, the Boys' 14 Waynesboro Tournament. Jay reached the finals in a draw of 128. After losing the first set, 3-6, in a hard fought semi final match, Jay was behind 4-5 in the second before he rallied to take the match, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Others from Princeton who participated at Waynesboro were Andre Eichenberger, who played four rounds to reach the quarter finals, including an upset 6-0, 6-4, victory over the No. four seed, Joel Schulman, Alan Aronovic, Flip Rubin, Keith Usiskin and Andrew Atkin.

TICKETS SELLING WELL

For Jaycee Classic. Ticket sales for this year's Jaycee Football Classic are running far ahead of last year's sales, according to Don Hutton, Classic Chairman for the Hightstown-East Windsor Jaycees.

The game once again pits the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles against one another at Palmer Stadium, on September 1. Although the majority of the tickets sold thus far have been the more desirable seats, many good tickets remain.

The proceeds are used to support charities and public service organizations throughout the state. This year's Hightstown East Windsor Jaycee Classic Committee is hopeful that sales will be great enough to allow for an increase in the number of organizations aided by the Jaycees.

Tickets are still available in the $9, $7 and $5 price ranges. Those interested in obtaining tickets or additional information may do so by contacting Mr. Hutton at 921-7700 or 443-3090, or ticket chairman Jack Ross at 448-5392.

TRIO WINS IN TENNIS

In West Windsor League. The team of Carl Amthor, Bill Christensen and Gordon Hansen captured the first division of the West Windsor mens evening doubles tennis league with a long, three-set match victory over the John DiPolvere, Dave Singer, Tony Zuccarello team, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3.

Amthor, Christensen and Hansen had finished in a tie with the Jim Coffee, Bob Shaff, Len Sobelman in the 8:30 p.m. league and in their playoff for the title the Amthor, Christensen, Hansen team won out also in a three-set match 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

The DiPolvere, Singer, Zuccarello combination had advanced to the finals with a 6-4, 6-4 win over the Rick Gordon, Ed Jordi, Bob Nielsen threesome in a close match.

THE MAZDA WILL GO HMMMMMMMM ON GAS THAT MAKES OTHER CARS GO PING.

The rotary-engine Mazda runs great on the cheapest gas you can buy. In fact, we'd like to see even cheaper gas like 80 octane. We don't know any other current car that can say this.

That's because of the rotary engine. It gives you performance, without buying expensive gas. That's worth knowing at a time of high fuel prices. Come test it.

Obituaries

Earl R. Browder, 82, of 21 Maple Street, died June 27 at his home. He was the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the United States from 1930 to 1946, and ran for President on the Communist line in 1936 and 1940.

Mr. Browder moved to Princeton from New York nine years ago to live with his son, William, chairman of the mathematics department at Princeton University.

Born in Wichita, Kansas, he became active in political causes in his early 20s. He opposed United States entry into World War I and was arrested in 1917 for conspiring to defeat operation of the draft law and for non-registration.

After serving two prison terms, including 16 months in Leavenworth, Mr. Browder was chosen to organize a delegation of non-Communists to the First Congress of the Red International of Labor Unions in Moscow in 1921.

At that time he met Lenin, about whom Mr. Browder later said, "I was a follower of Lenin. I trusted him implicitly."

Factional Strife. In 1929 Mr. Browder returned to the United States after three years of Communist Party work in China. The United States party was caught up in a factional quarrel, and a commission headed by Stalin was formed to settle matters.

Mr. Browder, who had stayed clear of the in party squabbles because of his stay in China, was chosen general secretary.

The top United States Communist often praised Stalin, but claimed later that he never really trusted him.

"I followed him because I thought he, of all the Russian leaders, was the most nearly correct, and the only one who had the nerve to fight Trotsky. Trotsky lived in an unreal world. He was ready to sacrifice the Russian Revolution for the speculative gains of a world revolution. Stalin never believed in a world revolution quick."

Rise and Fall. During the 1930s the Communist Party, which supported President Roosevelt's New Deal, attracted its most widespread popular support in the United States. But its early opposition to United States involvement in World War II caused the party to lose much of its sympathetic following.

Mr. Browder was convicted for unlawful use of his passport, and began serving a four-year jail term in March, 1941. But after the Nazi invasion of the Soviet Union in June, 1941, the party changed its stance, and supported U.S. involvement.

In 1942 President Roosevelt commuted Mr. Browder's sentence.

The rapprochement with the President, however, later led to Mr. Browder's ultimate political demise. In 1946, a French Communist criticized Mr. Browder as a "right deviationist." The next year he was removed as party leader and expelled from the Communist ranks.

Publishing Representative. Not devoid of compassion, the Communists in Moscow appointed him the Soviet publishing representative in the United States, a post he held until 1950.

He then lectured, and wrote a book, "Marx and America." He lived in an apartment in Yonkers with his Russian-born wife, Raissa Berkman Browder, who died in 1955.

In addition to William, survivors include two other sons, Felix E. of Chicago and Andrew of Providence, R. I.; a sister, Mrs. Nina Turner of Los Angeles; and eight grandchildren.

A memorial service was held in the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University. The funeral service and interment were private. Arrangements were made by the Kimble Funeral Home.

George J. Cooke, Jr., 73, former President and Executive Director of the American Alumni Council and before that Executive Director of the Princeton University Fund, Director of Annual Giving, and Assistant to the President of Princeton University, died, apparently of natural causes, in his apartment on the Ettl Farm, Rosedale Road, Princeton Township, over the weekend.

He was found by friends on Sunday, July 1, who had become concerned about not hearing from him. He lived alone, having never married.

Mr. Cooke was born in Chicago, Ill. on March 13, 1900 and lived there many years, attending the Chicago Latin School before entering Princeton University with the Class of 1922.

Mr. Cooke spent eight years with his father's company, the George J. Cooke Cold Storage General Time Corporation as Co., Chicago, before joining Director of Market and Sales Research. He subsequently worked with Roy S. Durstine, Inc., New York advertising agency, and as an executive with General Sound Corporation, radio advertising transcriptions, in New York City.

Air Force Duty. He enlisted in the Air Force in September 1942 and spent 26 months in Africa and Europe, first as a flight radio operator and later as a waist gunner on B-17 bombers. He was a crew member of the C-47 that landed Gen. Matthew Ridgway in Normandy on D-Day, 1944. Cooke received eight battle stars and the Air Medal with two clusters.

He joined the administrative staff of Princeton University in 1946, and was named Associate Director of the Princeton University Fund in 1950 and Executive Director in 1953. In that post he headed all fund raising activities for the University, including more than a dozen highly-sucessful annual giving campaigns.

In 1959 he was named Assistant to the President, continuing in that post until retirement in 1964. During this period he directed the midwestern phase of a planned $53 million capital giving program for the University, a drive which exceeded its goal by $7 million.

He joined the American Alumni Council as its Executive Director in 1964, having earlier served that group voluntarily as its President. A professional association of 3700 alumni administrators, educational fund raisers, and communicators, the organization serves some 1600 college, university, and independent school members in this country, Canada and abroad.

A former director of the Harvard Yale Princeton Club of Chicago, he had been President of The Princeton Investors, and had belonged to the Nassau Club, Springdale Golf Club, the University Club of Chicago, and the Princeton Club of New York. He was a member of the original advisory council which established the Aquinas Foundation at Princeton. Cooke was a frequent contributor of articles on educational fund raising.

There are no immediate survivors. Interment will be in Chicago.

Elphage P. Bernard, 71, of 104 South Main Street, Milltown, died June 29 in the Merwick Unit of the Princeton Medical Center. He had resided in the Rocky Hill-Kingston area until 1967.

A native of Hutland, Vermont, he retired in 1970 as a self-employed mason. He was a member of B.P.O.E. Elks Lodge No. 2129, of Princeton.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Katherine Keetch Bernard; four sons, George of Somerville, Albert of Kingston, Victor of Griggstown, and Richard of Annapolis, Maryland; three daughters, Mrs. Alice Stout of Three Bridges, Mrs. Edna Blaney and Mrs. Betty Kachmer of Trenton; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Weiman, Mrs. Marion Quiron, and Mrs. Edna Bernard, all of Long Island; one brother, Leo of Hightstown; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The funeral was in Milltown. Interment was in Rocky Hill Cemetery.

Leonard P. Smith, 93, formerly of 37 East Hanover Street, Trenton, died June 29 in Trenton. He was employed at the Princeton Inn until his retirement in 1960.

An Army veteran of World War I, he has no survivors.

A service was held at the Kimble Funeral Home. Private interment was in the Princeton Cemetery.

Mrs. Dora M. Stults, 96, of 77 South Street, Manasquan, died July 2 at her summer home on First Avenue, Manasquan Beach. Born in Jamesburg, she had lived in Cranbury for many years.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Cranbury and Pioneer Grange No. 1 of Dayton.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy S. Blair and Mrs. Marjorie S. Weisert, both in Manasquan; two sons, Wallace W. of Trenton and John A. of Hagerstown, Md.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from the A.S. Cole Funeral Home, Cranbury, with the Rev. Joseph H. Brady, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Manasquan officiating. Burial will be in Brainerd Cemetery.

Mrs. Susie L. Burd, 83, of Route 31, Pennington, died July 2 at her home. Born in Harbourton, she was the widow of Clarence Burd.

She is survived by one son, Lester L. of Pennington; and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at the Blackwell Memorial Home, 21 North Main Street, Pennington. The Rev. Donald I. Thiel, associate pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Pennington will officiate. Burial will be in Harbourton Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary H. Breese, 59, of 386 Mercer Street, Hightstown, died July 1 in Merwick. Born in East Windsor, she had lived in this area for 36 years, and was a former employe of Consolidated Models of Cranbury.

Widow of Grover C. Breese Jr., she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Warren D. Stiffler of Hightstown, one brother, Joseph Martin of Florida; and three grandchildren.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. in St. Anthony's Church with interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

News Of The CHURCHES

SEMINARIAN APPOINTED To Street Minister Post. The Rev. R. Keenan Orro, a 25-year-old student at the Princeton Theological Seminary and an ordained minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, has been selected Princeton's new street minister.

Rev. Orro began his duties Monday. He occupies the same office — on the second floor of the Chambers Street building of the Nassau Presbyterian Church — and has the same telephone number — 924-0957 — as his predecessor, the Rev. William Kight.

Announcement of Rev. Orro's appointment was made by Ralph Bloom, chairman of the Princeton Presbyterian Church and chairman of the commission's Street Ministry Committee.

"We were looking at three very good candidates for the position," said Mr. Bloom. "It was quite a decision to make."

A native of Chicago, Mr. Orro studied at Southern Illinois University before coming to Princeton about two years ago. He has one semester of work to complete at the Theological Seminary.

Princeton's new street minister is married, and has been active in community work through the Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church.

Mr. Kight, his predecessor, is now director of youth ministry at the Riverside Church in New York. He will return to preach in Princeton July 15 at 8:30 a.m. in the Presbyterian summer union service in the Princeton Cemetery, and at 10 a.m. in the Palmer Square building, and on August 26 at 10 a.m. in the Princeton University Chapel.

BULLETIN NOTES

The First Baptist Church, John Street and Avalon Place, will host the Rev. C. J. Malloy Jr., this Sunday. Rev. Malloy, who lives in East Orange and has held a wide range of church positions, has also been active in civil rights reforms. He will preach at the 10 a.m. service.

The Unitarian Church of Princeton, as part of a series of informal summer services held at 9:30 Sunday mornings, will discuss the topic, "Genetics and Man," this Sunday. Leading the discussion and bringing his Unitarian concerns to this controversial scientific subject, will be Richard Mason, Associate Dean and Associate Professor of Physiology at Rutgers Medical School.

TOWN OR COUNTRY?

An architectural masterpiece set on a stunning four acre hillside, set off by its many rugged boulders and towering trees. Planned to flow with the land, striking and spacious, yet warm and intimate in its use of materials, color and scale. Contemporary design at its very best. Dramatically reduced in price!

Bright airy open in feeling, with a "wall" of light and open stairs dramatically separating one level from the others, here is a house that is both interesting and functional. Set at the end of a Borough cul desac, it offers the privacy and seclusion of the country — just minutes from everything downtown.

WHERE . . .

WHERE ELSE . . .

But at COUNTRY ANTIQUES

can you find . . .

Large engraving of "The Declaration of Independence" by John Trumbull. PROOF. (It is a very worthwhile and rare piece.) See our corner window.

A Bennington jug, early, decorated redware—Delaware Valley (Trenton State Museum says possibly Ringoes). Same seldom seen pieces, with shiny red glaze spotted with black, as well as South Jersey redware pieces, glazed in black or gun metal. Decorated and signed pieces of stoneware including a perfect covered butter crock.

Large oxen yoke, beautiful wood and hand made.

Part of a weather vane from Sinclair Lewis's New Jersey stock farm (A prancing horse.)

A corner cupboard, walnut, and probably New Jersey as it has all the characteristics.

Silk shawls. After a long spring without any, had a windfall. Very summery, mostly pale pink and cream.

Happy to buy simple Early American things.

Hopefully, morning.
